COUCH COVERS AND CURTAINS

Such another assortment as ours of attractive and dependable Couch Covers and dainty fresh Draperies at prices within reach of everyone—cannot be found in this locality.

We aimed solely at perfection in gathering these new stocks—those first what would be satisfying to our store friends who depend on us to supply them with goods of this character.

If you are looking for something exclusive in Couch Covers or Draperies, that cost no more than the open patterns, our lines should appeal to you.

High Chairs and Cribs

When you buy, secure substantial, well-made ones that will stand the racket through many a siege. Not long ago the ancient wooden ark of a Rothschild crib sold for $100 at auction. Wonderful! A clumsy old article at that price, when for only $6.50 the Hooker store can offer a beauty. And good enough to hold an American king or queen. Come, see them.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Two table girls wanted at once at the hotel Otis.

Charles Davis of Washington was a business visitor in the city to-day.

David McDonald went to Boston to-day to spend a week's vacation.

Mrs. R. H. Ranney went to Boston to-day for a visit with friends.

Special for Saturday, at Barre Candy Kitchen; marshmallows 15c a pound.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Gray of Wilmington visited friends in the city to-day.

The celebrated Atlas Portland cement is sold by the N. D. Phelps company.

Miss Mary Owens returned this afternoon from a visit with relatives in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Desautels returned this afternoon from a visit with friends in Burlington.

Miss Margaret Young went to Boston to-day, where she will remain for several weeks.

Don't forget the lawn party and auto ride at Dr. Archambault's on Merchant street to-night.

Carl Waterman has returned home, after spending a few days with relatives in Orleans.

Petticoats, Petticoats in white and colors, special prices Saturday. Paris Shirtwaist House.

Sixteen bananas for 25c. All kinds of fruit, choice and fresh. Low prices at United Fruit Store.

Miss Esther Buckham, who has been passing two weeks in Orleans, has returned to her home in this city.

The man who wants four pairs "Wonderhose" will read the advertisement of C. S. Andrews on last page.

Gerald and Paul French of Orleans are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Waterman of Washington street.

Members of the Hedding male chorus are requested to meet in the Methodist church, Friday evening at 7 o'clock sharp.

Miss Sadie G. MacNeil, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Leary, returned to-day to her home in Boston.

The amusement committee of the I. O. O. L. M. U. will hold a social at the home of Mrs. David Faulkner on Washington street Friday evening, Aug. 19, at 7 o'clock.

Rosenheimer was arrested later. He denied that his automobile was in the smash-up, despite the fact that the lamps on his machine were broken and the front of the machine was damaged. The charge was so serious that bail was not fixed in the case.

Miss Lu Wallace has tendered her resignation with the Consolidated Lighting and Power company of Montpelier, to take effect the first day of September. She is planning to take an extended trip through the West and will be gone two months. She will spend quite a while at Denver, Col., with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marr. Mrs. Ruth Austin will accompany her.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Baptist church will hold a lawn social at the home of Mrs. Frank Cragg, 121 Hill street, Tuesday evening, Aug. 23. Be sure and keep this evening open and come and see the Pansy class give its exhibition of Indian club drill. They gave the exhibition in the church early this summer, and all who saw the drill were well pleased and spoke highly of their exercises. Don't miss seeing them, free in the open. Everybody welcome, ice cream will be served.

Thursday arrivals at hotel Otis were as follows: Alexander Sayre, Worcester, Mass.; G. D. Spaulding, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. William Reno, Providence, R. I.; J. Frawley, Philadelphia; Ed. Keene, Weston; E. F. Farrington, Portland; J. L. Leland, C. F. McCurdy, F. W. Prescott, Boston; H. Skeels, New York City; C. L. Cowles, Craftsbury; A. Best, Springfield; C. W. Foss, Burlington; L. M. Yetlaw, Burlington; F. A. Sawyer, Woodsville, N. H.

Thursday and Friday arrivals at the City hotel followed: J. W. Monroe, Hartford, Conn.; J. L. Porter, Middlebury; F. H. Hyde, White River Junction; Mrs. F. B. Lang, Barton; T. J. Gilbert, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. William Bowser, Plattsburg, N. Y.; J. J. Stevens, Burlington; O. E. Luce, Stowe; W. E. Hale, Claremont, N. H.; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hammett, East Montpelier; Mrs. C. J. Knight, Chelsea; G. Rust, Sheffield, Mass.; G. E. Moody, M. H. Berdan, Watbury; E. E. Hardy, J. B. Rogers, J. F. Fromme, Boston; E. J. Harrington, Burlington.

The management of the Pavilion is certainly making a tall lance for public favor and seems to be meeting with a justly deserved success. Five hundred new opera chairs have been installed for the comfort of the patrons. The show maintains a remarkably high standard of excellence in both pictures and vaudeville. The new vaudeville acts that came yesterday made big hits last night. Ed Keene is excellent and was forced to do an extra number after taking several bows. Will and May Reno kept the house in a constant uproar of laughter and proved to be one of the best laughing acts ever seen at the Pavilion.

"The Long Trail" at Dreamland theatre: The sure and unswerving justice of the frontier is thrillingly told in this story. A renegade Meti, who has killed an old Indian in the attempt to rob his traps, is pursued through summer and winter by two voyagers. Finally, after seemingly unsurmountable obstacles have been overcome, Meti is captured and brought back to the post for punishment. Interwoven with the main incident is the very beautiful and touching story of Natosna, daughter of the Indian killed by the renegade Meti, whose devotion and gratitude to the avengers of her father forms a theme of heart interest. No attempt at overdrawn ideas of the great land of snow, but actual scenes taken from true situations presenting one of the best film stories issued by the Selig company this season.

BARBECUE AT STATE FAIR.

Fatted Steer With "Fixin's" to be Served Visitors On Opening Day.

"Send me, Gods, a whole hog barbecued."

But it is not to be a hog. In this instance it is to be a steer, fat, sleek, with fiery eyes and fattened flank.

On Tuesday, Sept. 20, on the state fair grounds at White River Junction, under the direct supervision of the state fair commission, the fattest steer procurable, young and tender, is to be offered a sacrifice to the people—all the people who attend the state fair on that day, and slices ample, with dressing, potato—Vermont grown—bread and butter such only as are produced in Vermont, served to the hungry till appetite says "enough."

Everybody is invited to come from the east, west, north and south, witness a real barbecue and partake of the food offered by the commission.

It is the opening day of the fair, fitted with events to interest all with a dinner served without money and without price.

Sanford Emery of Proctorsville, will have charge of the barbecue. He is old at the business and knows how to make a roast that is like butter in the mouth.

To make the dressing, several barrels of crackers and over 100 loaves of bread will be used beside the seasoning.

The roasting will begin shortly after the arrival of the morning trains and will be ready to serve at the customary noon hour. A trench is to be dug on the elevation near the large grandstand, where there is ample space for a large crowd to witness the spectacle and to be served.

Secretary Davis is desirous of procuring the youngest large, fat steer or ox in the state, one that will weigh a thousand pounds or more and desires to hear from Vermont owners as to weight and price. He should be addressed, White River Junction, Vermont.

CHELSEA.

Miss Mary J. George is entertaining at her home on Court street Miss Mary Adams, a friend from Boston.

S. H. Allen of Cambridge, Mass., was in town the first of the week to visit his son, O. Fay Allen, and family.

John W. Sprague went Thursday to East Brookfield to spend a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Sprague.

Miss Walter H. Beckwith has gone to Lebanon, N. H., to fill an engagement as a nurse for a short time.

Madam Ruth H. Kennedy went recently to Worcester to visit her sister, Mrs. A. C. Wheelock, and during her absence her home in the upper village is closed.

Paul H. Moore of Concord, N. H., came the first of the week to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Denmore.

Let the Republican voters remember that the caucus to nominate a candidate for representative to the state legislature and to nominate a justice ticket to be voted for at the September election will be held in the town hall at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, Aug. 20.

Mr. Dustin A. Boardway, a former resident, who for the past year has lived in Island Pond, came the first of the week to visit her many friends here.

Mr. Eliza Carr and daughter, Miss Emma Carr, went last week to Fitchburg, Mass., where they will be the guests for a time of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Little, who were former residents here.

At the presentation of "The Old New Village Home" at the opera house Wednesday evening, the company played to a packed house, and the people of the town have reason to be proud of the ability of their local talent. The play is an especially interesting one, and it was most exceptionally well presented, and there was hardly one of the characters who was not worthy of especial mention. Mayo's orchestra from Lynn, N. H., played for the drama and for the dance which followed. At the dance there was a large company present and the floor director was Will J. Scott of Washington. On the evening of September 6, the same company will present at the opera house the drama entitled, "The Pride of Huckleberry," which will be a reproduction here and is certainly deserving of liberal patronage. The play will be followed by a social dance and the music for the evening will be furnished by Mayo's orchestra.

Charles L. Denmore, who had been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Denmore, for a week, has returned to Bethel. He was accompanied by Miss Ella Claffin of Bethel, who had also been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Denmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Goodrich of Northfield, came Wednesday evening to attend the play and dance and returned to their home, Thursday afternoon. During their stay here they were the guests of Mrs. Lizette Smith.

It is pleasing to note that Jason M. Carpenter of St. Johnsbury was recently elected to the presidency of the Vermont Rural Mail Carrier association.

Mr. Carpenter was a son of the late Martin Carpenter and was a Chelsea boy and a brother of Mrs. Theron Spear of this town. Mr. Carpenter has made his home in St. Johnsbury for the past thirty years.

Miss Annie Sleeper is entertaining at the home of her mother, Mrs. Abbie Sleeper and Miss Beatrice Granger of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Goss, who had been visiting the former's brother and sister, Dr. Arthur V. Goss, of Taunton, and Mrs. Annie Goss Fish of Canton, Mass., respectively, returned home the first of the week.

Frank C. Carleton of Barre City was in town on business for a day the first of the week.

RIGHT NOW

is a good time to buy and save a little money. When best Rubbers are 50c and Rega Oxfords in $3.50 and $4.00 grades are selling at $2.69 it is a good time to stock up for later use. This week will close out lots of good useful Dry Goods at saving prices. The following are some of the many kinds.

Wash Goods

We are selling Amoskeag Gingham in apron checks. These are very best fast colors, at 8c a yard. This price will be changed to 6c a little later. We will be obliged to do it in order to get our money back.

A very nice assortment of Gingham in common styles. These are 12 1/2c Gingham and styles are nearly all of them staple and those most used. The price for a while of this new fresh lot is only 10c a yard.

New lot of Bates Gingham in fancy styles. These are the very latest, and as these styles are very scarce we will not have the same styles again this season. They are beautiful; if anything, better styles than come in Scotch Gingham, and the price is but 12 1/2c per yard.

All of our 25c and 29c Scotch Gingham now 15c per yard.

New lot of Duckling Fleece Goods for house wraps, such as kimonos.

New lot of Eden Cloths in stripes for waists or skirts. These are 12 1/2c, 2 1/2c under price.

This sale brings up pretty near the last effort to close up Summer business. It's a good time to buy. Use New Ideal 10c Patterns as they are the very best.

Ladies' Tailored Suits

Here are a lot of Summer Suits of exceptional values, being in good colors and of a style that is very much like the new Fall Suits. Here are a few light colored Suits that you can more than get your money out of this fall, and still have a good Suit for next spring's wear.

At $6.25 are two Suits in a good value, are made in the best style, plain tailored coat, and were good values at $12.50.

At $7.50 are a couple of medium light colored Suits that are a good style for fall; only we have but two of them. Were good values at $15.00.

At $9.00 are a few medium light colored Suits that are as good values as we ever put out at double the price asked. The style is all right for fall.

At $11.25 are a number of fine Tailored Suits, mostly serges, are made in the best plain tailored style and are lined with the guaranteed satin. Were $22.50.

At $12.50 and $15.00 are what we have left in our best Suits of the season, that sold at $25.00 and $30.00.

Ladies' Cotton Linen Suits

At one-half the former prices are a lot of Ladies' and Misses' Cotton Ray and Linen Suits. Here are some value in seasonable garments that will be picked up very quickly.

At $2.75 and $2.88 are a few White and Linen-colored Suits, made in a good plain tailored style; were good values at $5.75.

At $3.25 are two Linen Suits that are exceptionally good values and will be picked up quickly.

At $4.25 are three good weight Suits, made of an imported shrunk linen. Were $8.50.

At $5.00 are a few natural Linen Suits that have been our best value of the season. Former price was $10.00.

At one-half price are what we have left in Ladies' Coats in both silk and wool.

State Convention of A. O. H.

The sixth annual state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Ladies' auxiliary will take place in Burlington August 22, 23, and 24. Elaborate preparations are being made by the state committee to make the convention a grand success. The convention will open on Monday evening in the rooms of the A. O. H., followed by degree work. A solemn high mass will be sung at St. Mary's cathedral on Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. W. J. O'Sullivan, state chaplain, will preach the sermon. A banquet will conclude the festivities of the day, at which time Hon. E. J. Slattery of South Framingham, Mass., will lecture.

On Wednesday a boathire on Lake Champlain on the steamer Chateaugay, one of the best steamers on the lake, will be enjoyed.

The convention will conclude with a grand ball on Wednesday evening.

The C. V. will issue special rates for the convention of $1.95 from Barre and $1.70 from Montpelier, good from Aug. 22 to Aug. 26, inclusive, tickets good going any day and returning not later than the 26th.

The committee extends a hearty invitation to all members of the order to attend the convention.
